Rocks community news notes

By CASSIE BALDWIN

Christmas is just around the corner. It was a good day at Rocks last Sunday, Dec. 11.

A very large crowd came out for the hanging of the greens that night. The candlelight service was beautiful. Special music by the choir added a lot. The potted plants were beautiful. Many came from Pamplin, Lynchburg, Danville, Evergreen and Appomattox. After the service many went to the home of Ann and Tommy Spain to see their beautiful home.

Mrs. Bennett, of Danville, arrived Sunday afternoon to visit her son-in-law and daughter, The Rev. and Mrs. Wes Williams and grandson, Greg. They left Monday for her home in Danville.

The Friendship Circle had their meeting Tuesday night with Ann Spain. Twelve members and two visitors were present. Ethel St. John was guest speaker from Evergreen.

The Faithful Workers Sunday Schoool Class had their class meeting on Thursday with Rachel Ranson. Gifts were exchanged. The Rev. Wes Williams told the Christmas story. A sunshine box for Christmas was carried to one of the shut-in members and plates were taken to a few others.

The farmers are gitting their tobacco on the market before Christmas.

Mark Hipps and son, Greg, went to Maryland Sunday to see the former's daughter and latter's sister, Kim, who will be going to join her husband who is in the service. They returned home Sunday night.

Greg went to Blacksburg on Thursday to see his brother, Randy, who is going to collge there and will be coming home on Friday for the holidays.

The college students will be home on Friday to be at home for Christmas. Patty Roch arrived Thursday night from Radford College. Michael Richardson came home from Lynchburg College on Friday, and Susan Morris came home from Radford. She will celebrate her birthday on Friday.

Sympathy goes out to the Terry family whose relative was buried at Spring Creek Monday morning.

Get-well wishes go out to Eunice Harris who continues ill in a Lynchburg hospital.

May Henry McPhillips, who is in a Richmond hospital, have a quick recovery. His mother is Ruby McPhillips of Catharpin, Va. They used to live in this area near Hixburg.

Get-well wishes go out to Mr. Miles Elder who is in Lynchburg General Hospital. He is a brother of The Rev. Winfred Elder. May he have a quick recovery.

The Laura Lee Stewart Circle and many others went to Bedner's in Keysville for the Christmas store Tuesday night.

On Dec. 17 Mildred Collins and Fellowship classes had their Christmas supper at 6 p.m. at the church.

Get-well wishes go out to Mrs. Etta Harris who is not feeling well.

The Rev. Wes Williams was in Richmond Thursday afternoon.

It is good that Margaret Marshall and Lockie Martin are able to be out again.

There's been a big change in the weather for the last few days. It may snow sooner than you think.

Harry Ranson was on the sick list last Sunday. He is out again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Roach accompanied the Bible Baptist Church group to Bedford on Friday afternoon for supper.

The children's Christmas play will be at Rocks today, Dec. 21, at 7:30 p.m.

CLARENCE WHITE, WEBB BABCOCK, AND STEVE WEBSTER, club manager at Falling River Country Club, examine site of construction of the additional nine holes for the club's golf course. The new nine holes should be complete some time in 1984, and ready for play in 1985. (Photo by Bill Sherrod)

Cable TV office moved to 29 South in Lynchburg

The Appomattox Cablevision Company office has moved from Mimosa Drive to a new location on Route 29 South, approximately five miles from the Lynchburg airport, according to an announcement this week by Vic Bosiger, manager of the Appomattox Cablevision Company and vice president of Nesbe Cablevision.

The new phone number is toll-free, 800-821-7110; the new mailing address is P.O. Box 10516, Lynchburg, Va. 24506.

Club members say thanks

Dear Editor:

We, the members of the Appomattox Junior Woman's Club would like to extend our sincere thank-you to all those who helped make our recent "Breakfast With Santa" the great success it was.

Without the support and cooperation of our local merchants for their generous donations of items; WTTX radio station, WSET TV News, and the Times-Virginian news for publicity; the Appomattox Primary School students for their lovely Christmas artwork which added tremendously to our holiday decorations; the local businesses who handled advance ticket sales; and especially to all the wonderful parents who brought their children to see Santa and have breakfast, this project would not have been the success it was.

A very special thank you to Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus for taking time from their very busy schedule to visit us in Appomattox.

Proceeds from this club project will be contributed to community projects and programs.

Our club was pleased to be able to sponsor such an event as this. It was most rewarding to see so many big smiles and lighted faces as the children sat and chatted with Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus. We look forward to next year's event and again, thank the so many people for their support.

CCC reunion is sought

To The Editor:

During 1983, the National Association of Civilian Conservation Corps Alumni (NACCCA) celebrated the 50th Anniversary of the establishment of the Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC)

The NACCCA is trying to locate about two million former members and persons who were connected or affiliated with the CCC during the 1930's and 1940's. It is a known fact that many of these persons reside in Virginia and areas serviced by the Times-Virginian.

I am sure that many of your readers have often wondered what became of the CCC. You can tell them the CCC lives again in the NACCCA. It is a young and growing organization with chapters in many of the states throughout the nation and one of its major objectives is to have the CCC reactivated.

A commemorative CCC postage stamp has been available for purchase since April 1983.

Anyone interested in the organization can write to NACCCA, Loehmann's Plaza, 7245 Arlington Blvd., Suite 318, Falls Church, Virginia 2204 For more information and literature.

Galilee news notes

"Peace on earth and good will toward men."

We are very happy to be back with you after an absence of several weeks.

The annual Christmas program was presented at Galilee last Saturday night. The Sunday School and Youth Services departments presented an inspiring pageant depicting the birth of Jesus. The singing of Christmas carols was enjoyed by the audience. Pastor Davis gave encouraging remarks to our youth and best wishes for peace and happiness to all.

On Sunday regular services were held at Galilee. We were blessed with beautiful weather and a lovely crowd. The pastor spoke on the subject "Making the Way Straight." This pre-Christmas message was enjoyed by all. The Youth Services Singers rendered beautiful Yuletide carols.

A new feature has been initiated at Galilee. Each month an adult and youth member of the church is honored for service well done and is designated. Adult and youth of the month. This month's honorees were Mrs. Bessie Watson and Miss Tanya Andrews. They were presented a certificate of recognition and a gift.

Renovation of the Galilee Baptist Church will begin in January of 1984. We are very proud of the program toward making our sanctuary more beautiful and comfortable for the worship of our Savior.

Funeral services for Mrs. Alice Cardwell were held at the Chestnut Grove Baptist Church this past Sunday at 2:30 p.m. Also, funeral services for Rev. H. J. Hendrix were held at Sulphur Springs Baptist Church on Monday at 2 p.m. Let us pray that both families may be comforted by God during their hours of sorrow.

Let us continue in prayer for all sick and shut-in of our church and community and churches and communities everywhere.

It is our sincere hope that all Christians will remember the true meaning of Christmas and observe its celebration in a way that would be pleasing to God.

Let us honor Christmas in our hearts, and try to keep it all year for a good conscience is a continual Christmas.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all from the Galilee Baptist Church!

Assembly says 'thanks'

"The Appomattox Assembly extends its thanks and appreciation to those individuals making contributions to the Reverend R. Q. Lawing, Sr. Memorial Scholarship Fund" said Thomas A. Chilton, Sr. Assembly president.

The following additional contributions have been made: C. Lewis McDearmon, $25.00; Fred Smith, $50.00; Mrs. Beulah S. Morgan, $100.00; Amrican Federal Savings and Loan (Appomattox), $50.00; Fellowship of Armed Forces Retirees, $50.00; Thomasville Furniture Industries, Inc., $500.00; Dr. Larry Smith, $100.00; Family Practice Center, $50.00; Lloyd Walton, $15.00; and Mrs. Vivian Morris, $25.00.

Correction

In last week's paper, the name of Tim Seamster was omitted from the list of students who made the honor roll in the recently ended marking period at Appomattox County High School.

Tim, a ninth-grader, made the "B" honor roll for the grading period.
